BEAVER GETS A PLUM

The Masonic University Will Be Located There.

MILLIONS BEHIND THE PLAN

An Organization Perfected, a Charter Taken Out and Site Selected—Masons Throughout the Country are Interested, but the Society Has Headquarters in Pittsburgh.

When the Knights Templar Conclave was held in Boston a number of prominent Masons banded themselves together for the purpose of building a Masonic university wherein the children of Masons could be educated and prepared for the hard knocks of the world. The plan became known in Boston, and it was telegraphed all over the country that the university would be built on a bluff overlooking the Ohio river, about 50 miles below Pittsburgh. As that distance from the source of the river would place the great institution near Liverpool, much interest was manifested, but it died away when nothing more was heard of the matter, and has almost been forgotten.

The university will be built, and a charter has already been taken out. Joseph Eichbaum, of Pittsburgh, is president of the organization formed for the purpose of pushing the plan, and C. H. Bronson, auditor of the Lake Erie railroad, is the secretary. Mark Fortune, of Beaver, is the father of the scheme and has spent much money traveling over the country and presenting it to Masons. Several meetings have recently been held in Pittsburgh, a charter has been taken out in Beaver county, and 800 acres of land, a bench overlooking the river, has been selected as the place to plant the great institution of learning. Options on the property have been taken, and as it is located in Beaver county, near the capital, the Masons of that valley will present it to the university. The plan is to raise an endowment fund of $8,000,000, which could be easily done if every member of the fraternity paid in $10; but since it is not likely that this will be done, the promoters still believe the amount will be made up by wealthy members of the order. The selection of Beaver has not yet met with serious opposition, and Masons in all parts of the country who are interested in the project are satisfied. The following circular outlining the plan has been sent out:

"Please inform every member of your lodge that during the conclave in Boston a meeting of prominent Masons was held, and it was decided to obtain a charter for a university, to be known as The National University. This has been done. Children over 10 years of age, resident anywhere in the United States, whose fathers (if deceased) were Masons, and also children of Master Masons, are entitled to its benefits.

"This college will be wholly in the interest of the craft and will be controlled by Masons. The necessary money will be raised by endowments from Masons and others. One member of each Blue Lodge in each state will be asked to act as director. Afterwards they will select one of their number to go to the college, to represent his state, together with the delegates from the other states.

"This college will be unsectarian, except an acknowledgment of the Grand Master above. There will be ample means to construct buildings, beautify the grounds, and leave on hand a nice endowment fund. The treasurer will be the Fidelity Title and Trust company, of Pittsburgh. The college will own its electric plant, water works and power house. After all is finished we can say: 'There is no place of learning on earth which can equal it in magnitude; nothing so grand in its appointments, and nothing superior for its intended purpose.' It is not permissible that this school be known as a 'Home' or a 'Charitable institution.' The indigent children of deceased Master Masons will be received, clothed, fed and educated, free of charge, and will in every way enjoy the same privileges as the children of the wealthy, yet it is the intention of the projectors of the school that these orphans should never be conscious that they are the recipients of charity, but that they should go out into the world thoroughly equipped with an education secured to them by the fact that their fathers were Master Masons. Social rank will not be marked by any superiority of dress, as all will wear uniforms of the same material. Boys will be in military uniform. Girls, university dress. Each member of all blue lodges, also every Masonic organization, will be asked to make this institution an endowment. After this is secured, the college will be self sustaining. This is entirely optional, and a refusal will not invalidate their relations with the college. Pecuniary contributions from every Master Mason would greatly add to the success of the college, yet its ultimate success will depend rather upon the moral support given by the craft. Students will graduate and receive from the university their diplomas in the following departments: Theology, law, medicine, electricity, military, besides a manual training school inferior to none. We earnestly request every Master Mason to heartily wish this enterprise a successful and prosperous issue. Then this university will be an honorable monument to Masonry, of such proportions that all civilization will gaze with wondering admiration. Nothing of such far-reaching importance to the craft has been presented heretofore. Your Blue Lodge, through you, will be fully informed shortly as to the progress of the university, with a copy of the bylaws of the same. Some of the most prominent men and Masons in the United States are on its honorary roll."

HE WORE THE BADGE.

How a Republican Caught His Democratic Friend.

A well known Republican, who has little to do beyond talk politics these days, was standing near a Democratic friend discussing the issues of the campaign yesterday, when he noticed that his friend did not wear a Campbell badge. He joked with him about it for a time, but the Democrat only laughed it away with the remark that he would rather wear none than a Bushnell button. That set the Republican to thinking, and in a few minutes he had succeeded in transferring his own picture of General Bushnell to the lapel of the Democrat, who, all unconscious of what he had, stepped around during the afternoon as proudly as ever.

WONDERING.

Members of a Secret Society Looking for a Man.

The friends of a well known secret society man, who is prominently connected with one organization in particular, are wondering what has become of him. He left town several weeks ago on business, and some people express the belief that he will never again return. Others are more loyal, and one member of the order who was interviewed upon the matter said last night that he did not believe the man had run away, because there was no reason why he should go. He had some funds of the society when he departed, but the member in question said the amount was not large enough to tempt any man from the path of honesty.

WHEN WOMEN WAR.

Look Out for a Row of Unusual Proportions.

There is trouble on the hill, and a row which promises to find its way into court. One woman had a horse which another woman wanted, and she in turn had a suit of furniture that the other imagined would look well in her parlor. A trade was effected, and the row began. The woman who got the furniture declared that it was not as represented, and demanded her horse. Now it chanced that the woman who got the horse was well pleased with it, and refused to return it for her furniture. Where the case will end no one knows, but the neighbors who are watching the affair with interest expect to see it go to court.

TOADIX HOME TUESDAY.

Carey, the Baltimore Player, is Having a Jolly Time.

Toadix Carey, the great first baseman of the Baltimore team, will be home on Tuesday. He is attending and taking part in the benefits being given for the club, and has been having a good time since the season closed, being very popular with the Baltimore people.

Mercer and Westlake are the Ohio battery in the game at Wheeling today.

Amateur baseball is dead in the city for the season, and it is thought that no more games will be played. Several ineffectual attempts to have a game were made this week.

A SPECIAL.

The Third Ward Councilman Will be Chosen Oct. 28.

The matter of choosing a councilman in the Third ward has been decided by the election board, and in spite of the general belief yesterday, it will take place on Oct. 28, the special election being ordered in a proclamation issued today by Mayor Gilbert. As yet there are no pronounced candidates, but it is said that several Republicans are willing, if it should chance to come their way.

ORGANIZED AT NIGHT

Motormen Formed a Union In East End.

THE MEETING ENDED AT THREE

The Men Could Not All Be There Until After the Last Car Was In, So They Met Early This Morning—Application Made For a Charter and the Names Dispatched.

Whether the street railway men win or lose in the contest they have on hand just now, they will have a union that will be backed by the Federation.

A meeting was called for last night, but as all the men could not be there until after the last car was safe in the barn early this morning it was decided to defer action until that time. Then they met in Chambers hall after 1 o'clock, and the purpose of the gathering was explained by some of the leaders. It was planned to organize a union of all employes of the road that would be affiliated with the American Federation. All the motormen present seemed anxious to have the organization made, and the application for a charter was at once made out. In the neighborhood of 26 names were on the list when it was sent away this morning, only one motorman holding aloof. The charter is expected here on Tuesday of next week, and the officers and a permanent organization will then be formed. There were other matters considered at the meeting, and the men did not leave the hall until after 3 o'clock. East End people wondered what was going on.

THE FIRST MOVE.

A New Traction Line That Will Come Down the River.

There is local importance attached to a charter granted yesterday in Harrisburg for an electric line that will parallel the Ohio river from Allegheny to Freedom, a station only a short distance from Rochester. The line will be built to Freedom for the purpose of connecting with the Beaver Valley Traction company, thus making a continuous electric road into Pittsburgh. A Pittsburgh gentleman who was interested in the bridge at this place stated several months ago that this charter would be taken out, and it was only the first connecting link that would unite all the electric roads from Pittsburgh to Wheeling.

NO DEMOCRATS THERE.

Mark Bough Found Them All Republicans in Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bough are home from Indiana and Illinois where they have been spending a few weeks with friends. Mr. Bough spent the greater part of the time hunting and talking politics, and while killing some of the fattest game he ever shot he learned that old time Democrats are up in arms against the administration. They are just now being offered 18 cents for corn, and as it is much lower than they ever sold it for before they think it high time something was being done. The Democratic party has few friends in the lower counties of these two states.

CUMBERLAND GIRLS STRUCK.

They Would Not Work With a Toronto Maid.

The girls employed in the glass warehouse at the Chelsea pottery in Cumberland struck this week because the boss employed a Toronto girl who, it was claimed, has worked in the pottery there during a strike two years ago. Another Toronto girl was compelled to quit work because of the unpleasantness growing out of the incident. The Toronto girls claim they never worked for less money than the regular price, and after the incident had caused no end of commotion in the two towns, the strikers went to work pending an investigation.

JOHN HANLEY DISCHARGED.

He Was Not Held For Hazing at New Wilmington.

The story that John C. Hanley, of this city, but now a student at Wilmington had been arrested, heard and held for another hearing is as a whole untrue. The young man was arrested for being interested in the case, but at the hearing was discharged and allowed to go. He wired his friends here last night that he was all right, and not implicated in the matter. Mr. Hanley had nothing to do with the case whatever.

RINGS WERE RETURNED.

Therefore There Will be no Scandal in the Church.

The other evening a young lady, prominently connected with a church in the city, chanced to be at the church and taking several valuable rings off her fingers laid them where she thought they would be safe. When she returned to look for the property it was gone. Complaint was made, and prosecution threatened as several other persons were present at the time and suspicion was aroused. When it seemed certain, because nothing had been heard of the jewelry, that prosecution would follow the rings were returned and the matter ended. The names of all the parties connected with the episode is known to the NEWS REVIEW, but at the request of people who believe their publication would injure the church they are not given.

SPARKS WERE RESPONSIBLE.

A West End Fire Started From the Chimney.

The house occupied by Miss Letta Malone in West End, was found to be on fire a few minutes after six last evening, and an alarm was sent in from the box at the pottery. The department lost no time in getting to the place, but only to find that the fire had been extinguished and their services were not needed. The fire was on the roof of the building, sparks from the chimney being the cause; but when the blaze was put out with a few buckets of water it was found that the due, defective, had fired the attic, and a hole was cut in the roof. The damage was slight.

THE WILD CAT AGAIN.

Second Street Hunters See the Animal Near Chester.

The wild cat, whose blood curdling shrieks frightened people in Grant district a few weeks ago, has again been seen, but as usual the beast got away. Ben Scharr and a number of other Liverpool men were hunting over the river last night when they saw an unusually large animal, and at once surmising that it was the wild cat, began firing. At the first shot the animal turned tail and fled, and after another had been sent after the thing the speed was hastened so that it escaped in the darkness. Several persons say they have heard the thing howl recently.

TURNED THE SPIGOT.

How Some Bad Small Boys Got Even With a Farmer.

A farmer with a barrel of cider in his wagon was peddling around the city late yesterday afternoon, being followed by the usual crowd of small boys. To their entreaties for cider he turned a deaf ear, but they staid by him, and at length he entered a saloon in the upper part of the city. No sooner had he disappeared behind the screen door than the boys were at the wagon, and after drinking all the cider they could hold, allowed it to run. As the farmer lingered over his glass in the saloon he lost several gallons of cider, and the boys went away happy.

DIFFERENT TIMES.

Liverpool Has More Than Its Lawful Share.

Complaint is made that the city has too many times, and some arrangements should be made whereby the bells would strike and the whistles blow within a few seconds of each other. An example is given of where a workman started for work this morning, his clock having been set by the time at central school building, but he had only gone a short distance when the whistle blew, and soon after other whistles, no two at a time sounded, while after all had done the big clock announced that it was seven.

IN AN OLD CHURCH.

Reverend Reinartz Preached When He Was East.

Reverend Reinartz is home from the meeting of the ministers of the Lutheran church at Easton, and while away delivered a sermon in a church that was built near 100 years ago. Harmony and good feeling characterized the meeting of the general council, and it adjourned after entire harmony in all conclusions reached, the complete obliteration of all nativistic, section and synodical jealousies, firm adherence to the council's confessional position, and friendly recognition of all other Lutheran bodies.

WILL SELL A SCHOOL HOUSE.

If Money for the Bricks in It is Not Paid.

SPECIAL TO NEWS REVIEW.
LISBON, Oct. 28.—The Furnace Fire Clay company, of Lisbon, today filed suits here aggregating $3,463.85 against Garside & Smith, Gamble & Smith and the board of education seeking pay for brick used in constructing the new school building. The firms named were the contractors.

Mrs. I. J. McKenzie was today divorced from her husband, Charles W. McKenzie, and given the custody of their child. They resided in East Liverpool.

WE DON'T NEED A PAPER

The City Already Entitled to Additional Officers.

ATTORNEYS DISCOVER A LAW

It Will Answer All Purposes Without A Petition, And There Can Be A Grand Change All Around—Officers For The Young Attorneys.

It has been discovered by diligent research that East Liverpool, as a city of the second class, third grade, is entitled to some officers that have been neglected in the past, and the petition talked about so much by an evening paper is not necessary.

In section 1548, laws of Ohio, it distinctly states that a city of the second class, third grade, is one in which, on the first of July of every year, the inhabitants number not less than 10,000 and not more than 20,000. This places Liverpool in that class beyond a doubt, since the population is in the near neighborhood of 14,000. Then comes another law providing for officers and it is found in section 1,707, and is readily seen on page 437 of volume one, Verified Statutes of Ohio, Smith & Benedict. The law, after giving the officers of cities of the second class, says:

"And in cities of the third grade of the second class there shall also be a police judge, prosecuting attorney of the police court, and clerk of the police court, which officers shall also be chosen by the electors thereof, and the council may, when in its own opinion expedient, create by ordinance the office of auditor, civil engineer, sealer of weights and measures, fire engineer and superintendent of markets, and provide for their election, appointment and compensation, provided that the provisions as to a marshal shall be subject to the provisions contained in the fourth subdivision of chapter five of the fifth division of this title; and provided further that in cities of the third grade of the second class, the council may, when in its opinion expedient, abolish, by ordinance, the office of marshal." This last provision, when the council abolishes the office of marshal, has the power to appoint a chief of police, which makes a plum in the gift of that body which the city has never had before, and opens a vista for prophecy unheard of in the politics of the city.

In section 1,785 it says that in cities of the third grade, second class, there shall be a court, held by the police judge, which court shall be styled the police court, and be a court of record. Section 1,787 says "The judge of the police court shall receive no fees or perquisites, but shall receive annual compensation, not exceeding $2,000, as the council may prescribe, payable quarterly out of the city treasury, and such further compensation, payable out of the county treasury, as the commissioners may deem proper."

The jurisdiction of the court is disposed of in section 1788: "The court shall have jurisdiction of any offense under any ordinance of the city, and of any misdemeanor committed within the limits of the city or within four miles thereof, to hear and finally determine the same, and impose the prescribed penalty; but cases in which the accused is entitled to a trial by jury, shall be so tried unless a jury be waived."

Other sections of the law provide for the compensation of the clerk, and prosecutor, the clerk being allowed a salary of not more than $1,000 nor less than $600, with such further allowance for state cases as the commissioners shall fix, but not to exceed $200 a year. The prosecutor is to have a salary fixed by council, and he can also be paid not more than $800 a year by the commissioners. The new order, it is said, will result in the final disposition here in the city of many cases which now go to Lisbon, but will not greatly cut down the business of the local justices, since their cases are as a rule civil suits.

Why the matter was not long ago brought out by local attorneys is a mystery at which they smile today. When the question of police court was discussed in a recent bar meeting, Attorney Travis decided to investigate and a hint dropped by a student put him on the right track. The attorneys say that the matter is plain law, and the city is clearly entitled to these offices under the statute without passing through the formality of having a lot of people sign a petition, although the paper in circulation had more than 100 names on it.

—Miss Griffith, who has been visiting friends in this city, returned to her home in Pittsburgh today.

ORGANIZED AT NIGHT

Motormen Formed a Union in East End.

THE MEETING ENDED AT THREE

The Men Could Not All Be There Until After the Last Car Was In, So They Met Early This Morning—Application Made For a Charter and the Names Dispatched.

Whether the street railway men win or lose in the contest they have on hand just now, they will have a union that will be backed by the Federation.

The charter is expected here on Tuesday of next week, and the officers and a permanent organization will then be formed. There were other matters considered at the meeting, and the men did not leave the hall until after 3 o'clock. East End people wondered what was going on.

The story that John C. Hanley, of this city, but now a student at Wilmington had been arrested, heard and held for another hearing is as a whole untrue. The other evening a young lady, prominently connected with a church in the city, chanced to be at the church and taking several valuable rings off her fingers laid them where she thought they would be safe. When she returned to look for the property it was gone. Complaint was made, and prosecution threatened as several other persons were present at the time and suspicion was aroused. When it seemed certain, because nothing had been heard of the jewelry, that prosecution would follow the rings were returned and the matter ended. The names of all the parties connected with the episode is known to the NEWS REVIEW, but at the request of people who believe their publication would injure the church they are not given.

SPARKS WERE RESPONSIBLE.

A West End Fire Started From the Chimney.

The house occupied by Miss Letta Malone in West End, was found to be on fire a few minutes after six last evening, and an alarm was sent in from the box at the pottery. The department lost no time in getting to the place, but only to find that the fire had been extinguished and their services were not needed. The fire was on the roof of the building, sparks from the chimney being the cause; but when the blaze was put out with a few buckets of water it was found that the flue, defective, had fired the attic, and a hole was cut in the roof. The damage was slight.

THE WILD CAT AGAIN.

Second Street Hunters See the Animal Near Chester.

The wild cat, whose blood curdling shrieks frightened people in Grant district a few weeks ago, has again been seen, but as usual the beast got away. Ben Scharr and a number of other Liverpool men were hunting over the river last night when they saw an unusually large animal, and at once surmising that it was the wild cat, began firing. At the first shot the animal turned tail and fled, and after another had been sent after the thing the speed was hastened so that it escaped in the darkness. Several persons say they have heard the thing howl recently.

TURNED THE SPIGOT.

How Some Bad Small Boys Got Even With a Farmer.

A farmer with a barrel of cider in his wagon was peddling around the city late yesterday afternoon, being followed by the usual crowd of small boys. To their entreaties for cider he turned a deaf ear, but they staid by him, and at length he entered a saloon in the upper part of the city. No sooner had he disappeared behind the screen door than the boys were at the wagon, and after drinking all the cider they could hold, allowed it to run. As the farmer lingered over his glass in the saloon he lost several gallons of cider, and the boys went away happy.

DIFFERENT TIMES.

Liverpool Has More Than Its Lawful Share.

Complaint is made that the city has too many times, and some arrangements should be made whereby the bells would strike and the whistles blow within a few seconds of each other. An example is given of where a workman started for work this morning, his clock having been set by the time at central school building, but he had only gone a short distance when the whistle blew, and soon after other whistles, no two at a time sounded, while after all had done the big clock announced that it was seven.

IN AN OLD CHURCH.

Reverend Reinartz Preached When He Was East.

Reverend Reinartz is home from the meeting of the ministers of the Lutheran church at Easton, and while away delivered a sermon in a church that was built near 100 years ago. Harmony and good feeling characterized the meeting of the general council, and it adjourned after entire harmony in all conclusions reached, the complete obliteration of all nativistic, section and synodical jealousies, firm adherence to the council's confessional position, and friendly recognition of all other Lutheran bodies.

LISBON, Oct. 28.—The Furnace Fire Clay company, of Lisbon, today filed suits here aggregating $3,463.85 against Garside & Smith, Gamble & Smith and the board of education seeking pay for brick used in constructing the new school building. The firms named were the contractors.

WE DON'T NEED A PAPER

The City Already Entitled to Additional Officers.

ATTORNEYS DISCOVER A LAW

It Will Answer All Purposes Without A Petition, And There Can Be A Grand Change All Around—Offices For The Young Attorneys.

It has been discovered by diligent research that East Liverpool, as a city of the second class, third grade, is entitled to some officers that have been neglected in the past, and the petition talked about so much by an evening paper is not necessary.

In section 1548, laws of Ohio, it distinctly states that a city of the second class, third grade, is one in which, on the first of July of every year, the inhabitants number not less than 10,000 and not more than 20,000. This places Liverpool in that class beyond a doubt, since the population is in the near neighborhood of 14,000. Then comes another law providing for officers and it is found in section 1,707, and is readily seen on page 437 of volume one, Verified Statutes of Ohio, Smith & Benedict. The law, after giving the officers of cities of the second class, says:

"And in cities of the third grade, of the second class there shall also be a police judge, prosecuting attorney of the police court, and clerk of the police court, which officers shall also be chosen by the electors thereof, and the council may, when in its own opinion expedient, create by ordinance the office of auditor, civil engineer, sealer of weights and measures, fire engineer and superintendent of markets, and provide for their election, appointment and compensation, provided that the provisions as to a marshal shall be subject to the provisions contained in the fourth subdivision of chapter five of the fifth division of this title; and provided further that in cities of the third grade of the second class, the council may, when in its opinion expedient, abolish, by ordinance, the office of marshal." This last provision, when the council abolishes the office of marshal, has the power to appoint a chief of police, which makes a plum in the gift of that body which the city has never had before, and opens a vista for prophecy unheard of in the politics of the city.

In section 1,785 it says that in cities of the third grade, second class, there shall be a court, held by the police judge, which court shall be styled the police court, and be a court of record.

Section 1,797 says "the judge of the police court shall receive no fees or perquisites, but shall receive annual compensation, not exceeding $2,000, as the council may prescribe, payable quarterly out of the city treasury, and such further compensation, payable out of the county treasury, as the commissioners may deem proper."

The jurisdiction of the court is disposed of in section 1788: "The court shall have jurisdiction of any offense under any ordinance of the city, and of any misdemeanor committed within the limits of the city or within four miles thereof, to hear and finally determine the same, and impose the prescribed penalty; but cases in which the accused is entitled to a trial by jury, shall be so tried unless a jury be waived."

Other sections of the law provide for the compensation of the clerk, and prosecutor, the clerk being allowed a salary of not more than $1,000 nor less than $600, with such further allowance for state cases as the commissioners shall fix, but not to exceed $200 a year. The prosecutor is to have a salary fixed by council, and he can also be paid not more than $800 a year by the commissioners. The new order, it is said, will result in the final disposition here in the city of many cases which now go to Lisbon, but will not greatly cut down the business of the local justices, since their cases are as a rule civil suits.

Why the matter was not long ago brought out by local attorneys is a mystery at which they smile today. When the question of police court was discussed in a recent bar meeting, Attorney Travis decided to investigate and a hint dropped by a student put him on the right track. The attorneys say that the matter is plain law, and the city is clearly entitled to these offices under the statute without passing through the formality of having a lot of people sign a petition, although the paper in circulation had more than 100 names on it.

—Miss Griffith, who has been visiting friends in this city, returned to her home in Pittsburg today.

CAMPBELL should have no difficulty
in getting a job in a brick yard when
the campaign is over, for he is proving
himself an expert at mud slinging.

The efforts of Democracy to secure
the Populist vote are agonizing in the extreme. Knowing full well that they cannot draw from Bushnell, they hope to make their defeat less glaring
by urging the friends of poor Coxey to forsake him.

"AND why shouldn't Brice come to Ohio," asks the Cleveland Leader. "Is
it right for him to shirk all the work
of the campaign and put the burden
upon his hired man Campbell? Ought he to expect that the Democrats will
take an active interest in his canvass
for re-election to the senate if he leaves his barrel in the hands of his lieutenants and fails to appear upon
the stump in Ohio himself?"

FOOLISH CAMPBELL.

When Candidate Campbell announced his intention of following
state issues in the campaign he never imagined that the Republicans would follow him closely, but unfortunately
for his plans they are hot on his trail.
One of his great claims has been the
awful extravagance of the McKinley
administration, and to prove him a falsifier, some good Republican has
prepared the following:

Athens asylum.....	1894.	1891.
Cleveland asylum.....	$136.94	$144.00
Central asylum.....	134.66	147.89
Toledo asylum.....	139.99	154.03
Imbecile asylum.....	120.81	125.49
Imbecile asylum.....	128.28	149.33
Blind asylum.....	211.18	243.43
Xenia Soldiers' and Sailors'
Orphan's home.....	156.56	168.18
Boys' Industrial home.....	108.71	114.37
Girls' Industrial home.....	97.96	121.44
Ohio penitentiary.....	134.38	146.79
Sandusky Soldiers' home.....	150.41	166.63

It shows the cost of maintaining
each person in the different state institutions, and proves that the boasts
of Campbell are more than nonsense.
But the lack of common sense on his part is the most astonishing thing of the campaign. That he should enter
the fight knowing these things, or that he should make statements knowing
they could be successfully denied, are
matters which plainly show what the News Review has often stated—he is
a politician seeking office and not a statesman seeking honor. Mr. Campbell should not forget that this year
he is dealing with a united Republican party, anxious to lay him beneath
the political sod.

England Thought to Be Form-
ing a European Alliance

AGAINST THE MONROE DOCTRINE.

The Fact Confirmed That Olney Has Sent
a Strong Note Regarding Venezuela.
The British Government Delaying an Answer—Diplomats Alarmed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Even after
the practical confirmation from British
sources of the statement that the state
department had addressed a strong letter upon the Venezuelan boundary dispute to Ambassador Bayard for delivery to the British foreign office, the
officials at the state department refuse
to make any admission touching the subject. The guarded and evidently inspired comment of the leading British newspapers upon this letter has attracted serious attention among the diplomatic body here, and they see in
it a good deal of significance and possibly a threat of grave complications to follow. The statement that it is held
to be of particular significance is that
the British government regards the
views set forth in Secretary Olney's
letter so important that some time must
be taken for its consideration.

As there is nothing new to Great Britain, especially in an enunciation in
a mild form of the Monroe doctrine, it
is assumed here that the only purpose
of delaying a response, which the terms
of the letter indicated would be gratefully received if sent promptly, is to
afford the British government an opportunity to consult some of the other
great European powers upon this subject. Most of these powers are concerned in the fortunes of American states, some directly, as France and Spain through their colonial possessions and others through heavy investments of their citizens in securities and concessions. The doctrine laid down
by Secretary Olney, if carried to its
logical conclusion, probably would stop
any interference by force on the part of Great Britain in the affairs of an American republic, and also, as in the case of Venezuela, which may find a
parallel in the case of the boundary
dispute between France and Brazil,
prevent any of these European nations
from extending their colonial possessions in this hemisphere. Therefore it is believed by some diplomats here to
be within the range of possibility that Great Britain may have in contemplation a union with some of the other European powers in a joint refusal to accept the doctrine laid down by Monroe.

The note which the cable refers to,
but does not explain, was one forwarded to Ambassador Bayard at London, directing him to inform the British government that the United States expects England to submit the Venezuelan
boundary dispute to arbitration to determine the rights of the parties at issue in that dispute, and failing such action the United States will make up
its mind as to the matter in accordance with the principles of the Monroe doctrine.

The cable from London says: "The United States ambassador, the Hon.
Thomas F. Bayard, presented a long
note to the marquis of Salisbury on the Venezuelan question some weeks ago,
stating at length the views of the United States government and the rules
and policy by which they guided such questions arising between a European
government and an American republic.
Up to the present no reply has been
given, and since it advances a doctrine
of such great importance and wide application, the matter will engage the
serious attention of the British government for some time."

Fighting Between Factions in Syria.

BEYROUT, Syria, Oct. 18.—Considerable excitement prevails in the Lebanon
district, owing to conflicts which have taken place between the Druses and Mutualists, in which men have been killed on both sides. Finally the Mutualists assembled 4,000 armed men near Sidon with the intention of attacking
the Druses. The latter thereupon appealed to their co-religionists in Hau-
ran, who are preparing to send 8,000
men to the assistance of the Druses.

THE GRANGERS ACT.

A Circular Calling Their Friends
to Action.

PURE FOOD LAWS MUST STAND.

The Proposed Attempt of the Makers of Adulterated Food to Have the Laws
Repeated Will Be Vigorously Fought.
The Circular's Contents.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 18.—On the 2d of
September State Food Commissioner
McNeal addressed a letter to the executive committee of the State Grange,
calling the attention of the organization to correspondence sent out by President Thurber of the American
Grocer Publishing company of New York city, asking co-operation in an effort to be made at the next session of the legislature to have our laws as to
pure foods modified so as to in effect
make them less effective against food
adulterations. The substance of this letter of Mr. Thurber has been already published in the press.

In response to this letter the executive committee of the grange has issued
a circular to the members of the organization in this state, the substance of
which is about as follows:
[The source from which this movement originates is the Central Publishing interest of the grocers of the United States. Those engaged in making and selling adulterated goods, finding that
under the present law they would be
held responsible for the goods they sell,
will now seek by legislative enactment
to be relieved of such responsibility.

These things show very plainly that these parties are determined, so far as possible, to be free from any interference with their nefarious practices.
The grange having been the pioneer in securing legislation against this great
evil, we call upon patrons everywhere
and all lovers of justice and fair dealing to see to it that your members of
the legislature be warned against allowing any interference with present
statutes, and that the law be sustained.

Runaway at a Funeral.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 18.—A funeral cor-
tege, attending the body of the late William Wagner to its last resting place in Woodland cemetery, was
thrown into confusion by a runaway
accident. A sudden halt was occasioned in the procession by a blockade
on East Second street. Rigs were backed into each other, and a horse attached to a carriage in which were seated Miss Lulu Harries, Mrs. John Miller and her daughter Mary, took fright and became unmanageable. The carriage was upturned and the occupants, fastened in the top of the vehicle were dragged a considerable distance. All the occupants were cut and bruised. Miss Harries receiving a severe scalp wound.

A Clothespin Combine.

treasurer, H. B. Smith, Liddington,
Mich.; directors, A. W. Dodge, Morley, Mich.; M. Brayman, Custer, Mich.;
D. K. Parrish, Richmond, Va., and President Howells. The new company
will control the output and prevent competition. The number of clothes-
pins made in this country exceeds 500-
000,000 a year.

Miners Likely to Go to Work.

MASSILON, O., Oct. 18.—The district
president of the miners of this place has called on Mayor Schott and asked him to hold off the state board of arbitration on the ground that the striking miners would probably accept the result of the Columbus joint meeting and go to work next Monday. This indicates a direct reversal
of the miners recent independent
attitude.

CAMPBELL should have no difficulty
 in getting a job in a brick yard when
 the campaign is over, for he is proving
 himself an expert at mud slinging.

The efforts of Democracy to secure
 the Populist vote are agonizing in the extreme. Knowing full well that they cannot draw from Bushnell, they hope to make their defeat less glaring
 by urging the friends of poor Coxey to
 forsake him.

"AND why shouldn't Brice come to Ohio," asks the Cleveland Leader. "Is
 it right for him to shirk all the work
 of the campaign and put the burden
 upon his hired man Campbell? Ought
 he to expect that the Democrats will
 take an active interest in his canvass
 for re-election to the senate if he
 leaves his barrel in the hands of his
 lieutenants and fails to appear upon
 the stump in Ohio himself?"

FOOLISH CAMPBELL.

When Candidate Campbell announced his intention of following
 state issues in the campaign he never
 imagined that the Republicans would
 follow him closely, but unfortunately
 for his plans they are hot on his trail.
 One of his great claims has been the
 awful extravagance of the McKinley
 administration, and to prove him a
 falsifier, some good Republican has
 prepared the following:

	1894.	1891.
Athens asylum.....	$136 94	$144 00
Cleveland asylum.....	134 66	147 80
Central asylum.....	139 99	154 03
Toledo asylum.....	120 81	125 49
Imbecile asylum.....	138 28	149 33
Blind asylum.....	211 18	243 43
Xenia Soldiers' and Sailors'.....
Orphan's home.....	156 56	168 18
Boys' Industrial home.....	108 71	114 37
Girls' Industrial home.....	97 96	121 44
Ohio penitentiary.....	134 38	146 79
Sandusky Soldiers' home.....	150 41	166 63

It shows the cost of maintaining
 each person in the different state institutions, and proves that the boasts
 of Campbell are more than nonsense.
 But the lack of common sense on his
 part is the most astonishing thing of
 the campaign. That he should enter
 the fight knowing these things, or that
 he should make statements knowing
 they could be successfully denied, are
 matters which plainly show what the NEWS REVIEW has often stated—he is
 a politician seeking office and not a statesman seeking honor. Mr. Campbell should not forget that this year
 he is dealing with a united Republi-
 can party, anxious to lay him beneath
 the political sod.

England Thought to Be Form-
 ing a European Alliance

AGAINST THE MONROE DOCTRINE.

The Fact Confirmed That Olney Has Sent
 a Strong Note Regarding Venezuela.
 The British Government Delaying an Answer—Diplomats Alarmed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Even after
 the practical confirmation from British
 department had addressed a strong letter upon the Venezuelan boundary dispute to Ambassador Bayard for delivery to the British foreign office, the
 officials at the state department refuse
 to make any admission touching the
 subject. The guarded and evidently
 inspired comment of the leading British newspapers upon this letter has attracted serious attention among the
 diplomatic body here, and they see in
 it a good deal of significance and possibly a threat of grave complications to follow. The statement that it is held
 to be of particular significance is that
 the British government regards the
 views set forth in Secretary Olney's
 letter so important that some time must
 be taken for its consideration.

As there is nothing new to Great Britain, especially in an enunciation in
 a mild form of the Monroe doctrine, it
 is assumed here that the only purpose
 of delaying a response, which the terms
 of the letter indicated would be grate-
 fully received if sent promptly, is to
 afford the British government an opportunity to consult some of the other
 great European powers upon this subject. Most of these powers are concerned in the fortunes of American
 states, some directly, as France and
 Spain through their colonial possessions and others through heavy investments of their citizens in securities and
 concessions. The doctrine laid down
 by Secretary Olney, if carried to its
 logical conclusion, probably would stop
 any interference by force on the part of a European power in the affairs of an American republic, and also, as in the
 case of Venezuela, which may find a
 parallel in the case of the boundary
 dispute between France and Brazil,
 prevent any of these European nations
 from extending their colonial possessions in this hemisphere. Therefore it is believed by some diplomats here to
 be within the range of possibility that
 Great Britain may have in contempla-
 tion a union with some of the other European powers in a joint refusal to accept the doctrine laid down by Monroe.

The note which the cable refers to,
 but does not explain, was one forward-
 ed to Ambassador Bayard at London, directing him to inform the British government that the United States expects
 England to submit the Venezuelan
 boundary dispute to arbitration to determine the rights of the parties at
 issue in that dispute, and failing such
 action the United States will make up
 its mind as to the matter in accordance with the principles of the Monroe doctrine.

The cable from London says: "The
 United States ambassador, the Hon.
 Thomas F. Bayard, presented a long
 note to the marquis of Salisbury on the Venezuelan question some weeks ago,
 stating at length the views of the United States government and the rules
 and policy by which they guided such
 questions arising between a European
 government and an American republic.
 Up to the present no reply has been
 given, and since it advances a doctrine
 of such great importance and wide application, the matter will engage the
 serious attention of the British government for some time."

Fighting Between Factions in Syria.

BEYROUT, Syria, Oct. 18.—Consider-
 able excitement prevails in the Lebanon
 district, owing to conflicts which have
 taken place between the Druses and Mutuals, in which men have been killed on both sides. Finally the Mutuals assembled 4,000 armed men near Sidon, with the intention of attacking
 the Druses. The latter thereupon appealed to their co-religionists in Hau-
 ran, who are preparing to send 5,000
 men to the assistance of the Druses.

THE GRANGERS ACT.

A Circular Calling Their Friends
 to Action.

PURE FOOD LAWS MUST STAND.

The Proposed Attempt of the Makers of
 Adulterated Food to Have the Laws
 Repealed Will Be Vigorously Fought.
 The Circular's Contents.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 18.—On the 2d of
 September State Food Commissioner
 McNeal addressed a letter to the executive committee of the State Grange,
 calling the attention of the organization to correspondence sent out by
 President Thurber of the American
 Grocer Publishing company of New York city, asking co-operation in an effort to be made at the next session of
 the legislature to have our laws as to
 pure foods modified so as to in effect
 make them less effective against food
 adulterations. The substance of this letter of Mr. Thurber has been already
 published in the press.

In response to that letter the executive committee of the grange has issued
 a circular to the members of the organization in this state, the substance of
 which is about as follows:

The source from which this movement originates is the Central Publishing interest of the grocers of the United States. Those engaged in making and
 selling adulterated goods, finding that
 under the present law they would be
 held responsible for the goods they sell,
 will now seek by legislative enactment
 to be relieved of such responsibility.

These things show very plainly that
 these parties are determined, so far as
 possible, to be free from any interference with their nefarious practices.
 The grange having been the pioneer in
 securing legislation against this great
 evil, we call upon patrons everywhere
 and all lovers of justice and fair dealing to see to it that your members of
 the legislature be warned against allowing any interference with present
 statutes, and that the law be sustained.

Runaway at a Funeral.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 18.—A funeral cor-
 tege, attending the body of the late
 William Wagner to its last resting
 place in Woodland cemetery, was
 thrown into confusion by a runaway
 accident. A sudden halt was occasioned in the procession by a blockade
 on East Second street. Rigs were backed into each other, and a horse attached to a carriage in which were
 seated Miss Lulu Harries, Mrs. John Miller and her daughter Mary, took
 fright and became unmanageable. The carriage was overturned and the occupants, fastened in the top of the vehicle were dragged a considerable distance. All the occupants were cut and
 bruised, Miss Harries receiving a severe scalp wound.

A Clothespin Combine.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 18.—Representa-

 Mich.; directors, A. W. Dodge, Mor-
 ley, Mich.; M. Brayman, Custer, Mich.;
 D. K. Parrish, Richmond, Va., and
 President Howells. The new company
 will control the output and prevent
 competition. The number of clothes-
 pins made in this country exceeds 500,
 000,000 a year.

Miners Likely to Go to Work.

MARSHALL, O., Oct. 18.—The district
 president of the coal miners has called on Mayor Schott and asked him to hold off the state board of apiritation on the ground that the striking miners would probably accept the result of the Columbus joint meeting and go to work next Monday. This indicates a direct reversal
 of the miners recent independent
 attitude.

CORBETT IS ARRESTED.
 Evidently a Move to Test the Arkansas Law.

CLARKE SUSPICIOUSLY MUM.
 It Looks Like the Sports Had Talked Him Out of His Determination to Stop the Proposed Bill—Latest Phase of the Situation.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 18.—The chances for a meeting at Hot Springs on Oct. 31 between Corbett and Fitzsimmons appear to be much brighter than at any time during the past few days. Indeed, it would now seem that the only obstacle in the way of the men meeting in a glove contest is Fitzsimmons' expressed determination not to agree to the revised articles. Governor Clarke has returned from Hot Springs. His conference with the citizens' committee certainly made an impression on the governor, but what that impression is, no one knows and the governor himself stoutly refuses to say anything on the subject. When questioned in regard to his visit to Hot Springs, the governor merely said that he had gone over there in response to a telegram from Brigadier General Taylor and that he had been present at a meeting of the citizens' committee and others interested when the subject of prizefights, boxing matches and kindred sports were discussed.

The governor declined to say whether the discussion has caused him to discern the difference between a prizefight to a finish and a limited round contest with soft gloves. All that he would say was that his determination remained unchanged. When asked if he was willing to let the courts settle the matter, the governor said he was not ready to say that a governor could not afford to go on record as antagonizing the judiciary of the state, and that it was best to say nothing on the subject. The fact that Corbett was arrested on a warrant sworn out by State Attorney Teague so soon after Governor Clarke's visit to the Springs leads many people to believe that the governor has decided to let the courts settle the whole matter. Should Corbett be released on a writ of habeas corpus, of which there seems to be little doubt, it is believed that there will be no further interference on the part of the governor, since the granting of the writ would in effect be a judicial declaration that boxing in Arkansas is not a violation of the law.

On the other hand, however, should Governor Clarke still adhere to his determination to stop the contest at any cost under authority of the riot act, ignoring the writ of habeas corpus, then the judiciary and executive will come in direct conflict, and as stated in these dispatches last night, trouble of a serious nature might occur. This, however, now seems improbable, as it is known beyond a doubt that Brigadier General Taylor personally is far from entertaining the warlike view of the situation that his recent interviews would seem to indicate, and while he would, of course, do his duty were he called upon, his personal feelings in the matter should not be overlooked in sizing up the situation. General Taylor said to have used his influence while at Hot Springs with Governor Clarke in persuading the governor that a boxing match is not to be regarded as a prizefight.

The general is said to be an admirer of the manly art himself and formerly intended witnessing the bout between the heavyweights. As an indication of General Taylor's feeling in the present matter, is a fact vouched for by Governor Clarke himself, that the brigadier general has had himself photographed at Hot Springs with Champion James J. Corbett on one side and Manager William A. Brady on the other. It would seem from looking over the situation that the courts would settle the whole matter. The parties interested declared their intention of abiding by the law, and if the writ of habeas corpus be granted the contest will take place.

A Hot Springs special says: The warrant against James J. Corbett charges that he is at Clear Spring and is about to commit an unlawful assault upon the person of one Bob Fitzsimmons. It was placed in the hands of Sheriff Hout, who proceeded to the Arlington hotel and served it. The warrant was issued at the instance of Prosecuting Attorney C. V. League. Corbett was brought into court by the sheriff and the prosecuting attorney asked that he be put under bond to keep the peace. Judge Kirk made the order, as asked, placing the bond at $10,000. Corbett refused to give the bond, and his attorneys, Martin & Groves, through Mr. Martin, will sue out a writ of habeas corpus before Chancellor Leatherman, asking for his release. This will bring the question up for judicial hearing as to whether a glove contest, such as is now proposed, will be a violation of the state statutes. If the court decides that it is not it is believed that the authorities will respect the decision, but if to the contrary, it is thought the whole matter will be abandoned.

A Dallas special says: George W. Taylor, chief of the fire department of Guthrie, O. T., has submitted to Secretary Wheelock a proposition that the citizens of Guthrie will deposit $10,000 cash to guarantee that there will be no interference with the Fitzsimmons-Corbett fight if held there.

An El Paso special says: Dispatches received from Hot Springs encourage the idea that the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight may be pulled off in Juarez, Mexico, but the management will make no official announcement.

TURKEY IS SLOW

But Frank Lenz Will Be Avenged in Time.

W. A. Sachtleben, who is searching for the murderers of Frank Lenz, has written the following to his sister in Alton, Ill.:

"After countless delays that are sufficient to drive an American, accustomed to pushing an affair once begun to an immediate conclusion, insane, my hopes for winding up my affairs here are in a fair way of being realized. Yesterday I received the cheering intelligence that the committee on investigation is about ready to begin operations, and will be headed by Shaki Pasha, a very high official of the sultan's court, and a favorite with the sultan. Today I received the honor of a call from the pasha, accompanied by the interpreter of the English consul and a retinue of army officers and attendants. Myself and my native interpreter and a friend whom I could trust composed our side of a private conference, which was then held. I laid before Shaki the names of the men I had every reason to believe were guilty of murdering Lenz. Immediate prosecution of the undertaking is promised by the pasha."

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which requires a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. THE LEAGUE RESPONSIBLE.

Who Provided the Grand Jury With so Much Information.

"It is my private opinion," said a business man who would not allow his name to be used, "that the Good Citizenship league is responsible for the large batch of saloonists returned by the grand jury for breaking the liquor laws. I know they say the organization has died out, but if you remember it was organized as a secret society, and I have not the least doubt that it has been very active the past few months. I know it was the intention of the league to keep an eye on the liquor dealers, and if they broke the law to prosecute them."

It Will not be Long Before Avondale Will be Graded.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—Can you tell the waiting people of Avondale street when the holes will be filled up and the street paved? A READER.

The ordinance declaring the improvement of the street was published in the NEWS REVIEW this week, and Clerk Hanley will have the notice, asking bids, printed at once. It will probably be a month before work can be started, but after that the contractor will push it as rapidly as possible, for it will pay him to get done in a hurry.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Frank Pilgrim, of the wharfbait, is slowly recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

Mr. Bowman, a respected resident of Third street, is very ill with consumption and it is feared that he can not recover.

The fog this morning was the most dense of the fall, and thermometers in all parts of town were registering from 38 to 35 degrees.

Harry Meir, foreman of the casting department of the china works, is able to be at work again after an illness with inflammation extending over four months.

A man from one of the clay towns down the river, according to his own story, was very drunk on West Market street last night. He fell down several times when near Seventh.

It is now stated that the Campbell meeting, which was expected to draw such a large (?) crowd from East Liverpool, will not take place in Alliance at all, but will be held in Canton.

An East End chicken thief got away with a few fowls belonging to a farmer residing above the city one night this week, and his identity being suspected, the farmer called on him and exacted payment.

The young ladies of the First Presbyterian church are arranging for a unique entertainment to be held in the near future. It is a birthday party, and elaborate preparations will be made for the event.

John Tolbert, a packer employed at the McNicol pottery, received intelligence yesterday that his mother at Braddock was dying, a complication of diseases being the cause. He immediately left for Braddock.

There has been a shortage of gas for several days on the lines of the Ohio Valley company, and at several potteries it was severely felt. The supply today is much better than usual, and the trouble is over.

Complaint is made of alleys in some parts of town being in need of a thorough cleaning. The city was so well cleared of filth in the spring that good health has been the result, and the authorities should not allow the town to become dirty.

The rivermen now say that they do not expect a rise until Thanksgiving, because it is a saying among them that they always have to work on holidays. The weather bureau has no rain in sight and can not predict when there will be a general fall.

A meeting of the McKinley club has been called for this evening and will be held in the room recently rented in the Thompson building. All the members are expected to be present as important business relating to the permanent home of the club will be transacted.

A pitiable case of destitution was discovered in the upper part of town yesterday and relieved by several charitable ladies. The number of such cases, however, are not as large as last year and the year before, for people have learned to call upon the trustees when they are in need.

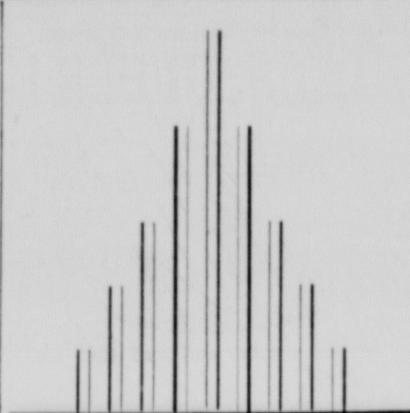

Charles Emory Smith, the gentleman who will speak at the rink on Monday evening in the cause of Republicanism, is among the most brilliant orators in the campaign and should be greeted by a representative East Liverpool audience. People of all parties should attend since he talks for every one.

The nuisance of the police permitting boys to serenade newly wedded people was plainly shown on Third street last night when the youngsters assembled to welcome Mr. and Mrs. McGov. The whole neighborhood was roused by the noise, and as it continued for two hours or more they were greatly annoyed. The police let the boys alone, because it is a custom of long standing.

Marriage licenses were issued today at Lisbon to Lemuel R. Bashaw and Clara B. Allison, of Salem; Harmon McQuillen and Alice Willard, Wayne township; S. J. Patterson and Mary E. Simon; Alfred B. Ikirt and Addie F. Armstrong. The last two couples neglected to leave their address. The number of marriage licenses this year will greatly exceed those of last year if the present rate is continued.

Word from Irondale says that the scarcity of water may compel a shut down at the mill. The number of men thrown out of employment by such a happening would seriously affect the business of the town, which is now in a flourishing condition, despite the Democratic reduction in wages. None of the men who went away when the strike was declared have returned to work, although several own property in the village.

The scholarly and intelligent manner in which the Pittsburgh papers deal with East Liverpool news matter is demonstrated today by the announcement in one of the most staid and reliable papers of the city, that "Two East Liverpool policemen have been indicted by the grand jury for selling liquor without a license." The item not only shows the presence of a blockhead in the office, but implies that Liverpool policemen can sell liquor when they have a license.

CORBETT IS ARRESTED.

Evidently a Move to Test the Arkansas Law.

CLARKE SUSPICIOUSLY MUM.

It Looks Like the Sports Had Talked Him Out of His Determination to Stop the Proposed Bill—Latest Phase of the Situation.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 18.—The chances for a meeting at Hot Springs on Oct. 31 between Corbett and Fitzsimmons appear to be much brighter than at any time during the past few days. Indeed, it would now seem that the only obstacle in the way of the men meeting in a glove contest is Fitzsimmons' expressed determination not to agree to the revised articles. Governor Clarke has returned from Hot Springs. His conference with the citizens' committee certainly made an impression on the governor, but what that impression is, no one knows and the governor himself stoutly refuses to say anything on the subject. When questioned in regard to his visit to Hot Springs, the governor merely said that he had gone over there in response to a telegram from Brigadier General Taylor and that he had been present at a meeting of the citizens' committee and others interested when the subject of prizefights, boxing matches and kindred sports were discussed.

The governor declined to say whether the discussion has caused him to discern the difference between a prizefight to a finish and a limited round contest with soft gloves. All that he would say was that his determination remained unchanged. When asked if he was willing to let the courts settle the matter, the governor said he was not ready to say that a governor could not afford to go on record as antagonizing the judiciary of the state, and that it was best to say nothing on the subject. The fact that Corbett was arrested on a warrant sworn out by State's Attorney Teague so soon after Governor Clarke's visit to the Springs leads many people to believe that the governor has decided to let the courts settle the whole matter. Should Corbett be released on a writ of habeas corpus, of which there seems to be little doubt, it is believed that there will be no further interference on the part of the governor, since the granting of the writ would in effect be a judicial declaration that boxing in Arkansas is not a violation of the law.

On the other hand, however, should Governor Clarke still adhere to his determination to stop the contest at any cost under authority of the riot act, ignoring the writ of habeas corpus, then the judiciary and executive will come in direct conflict, and as stated in these dispatches last night, trouble of a serious nature might occur. That, however, now seems improbable, as it is known beyond a doubt that Brigadier General Taylor personally is far from entertaining the warlike view of the situation that his recent interviews would seem to indicate, and while he would, of course, do his duty were he called upon, his personal feelings in the matter should not be overlooked in sizing up the situation. General Taylor is said to have used his influence while at Hot Springs with Governor Clarke in persuading the governor that a boxing match is not to be regarded as a prizefight.

The general is said to be an admirer of the manly art himself and formerly intended witnessing the bout between the heavyweights. As an indication of General Taylor's feeling in the present matter, is a fact vouched for by Governor Clarke himself, that the brigadier general has had himself photographed at Hot Springs with Champion James J. Corbett on one side and Manager William A. Brady on the other. It would seem from looking over the situation that the courts would settle the whole matter. The parties interested declared their intention of abiding by the law, and if the writ of habeas corpus be granted the contest will take place.

A Hot Springs special says: The warrant against James J. Corbett charges that he is at Clear Spring and is about to commit an unlawful assault upon the person of one Bob Fitzsimmons. It was placed in the hands of Sheriff Hought, who proceeded to the Arlington hotel and served it. The warrant was issued at the instance of Prosecuting Attorney C. V. League. Corbett was brought into court by the sheriff and the prosecuting attorney asked that he be put under bond to keep the peace. Judge Kirk made the order, as asked, placing the bond at $10,000. Corbett refused to give the bond, and his attorneys, Martin & Greaves, through Mr. Martin, will sue out a writ of habeas corpus before Chancellor Leatherman, asking for his release. This will bring the question up for judicial hearing as to whether a glove contest, such as is now proposed, will be a violation of the state statutes. If the court decides that it is not it is believed that the authorities will respect the decision, but if to the contrary, it is thought the whole matter will be abandoned.

A Dallas special says: George W. Taylor, chief of the fire department of Guthrie, O. T., has submitted to Secretary Wheelock a proposition that the citizens of Guthrie will deposit $10,000 cash to guarantee that there will be no interference with the Fitzsimmons-Corbett fight if held there.

An El Paso special says: Dispatches received from Hot Springs encourage the idea that the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight may be pulled off in Juarez, Mexico, but the management will make no official announcement.

TURKEY IS SLOW

But Frank Lenz Will Be Avenged in Time.

W. A. Sachtleben, who is searching for the murderers of Frank Lenz, has written the following to his sister in Alton, Ill.:

"After countless delays that are sufficient to drive an American, accustomed to pushing an affair once begun to an immediate conclusion, insane, my hopes for winding up my affairs here are in a fair way of being realized. Yesterday I received the cheering intelligence that the committee on investigation is about ready to begin operations, and will be headed by Shaki Pasha, a very high official of the sultan's court, and a favorite with the sultan. Today I received the honor of a call from the pasha, accompanied by the interpreter of the English consul and a retinue of army officers and attendants. Myself and my native interpreter and a friend whom I could trust composed our side of a private conference, which was then held. I laid before Shaki the names of the men I had every reason to believe were guilty of murdering Lenz. Immediate prosecution of the undertaking is promised by the pasha."

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. THE LEAGUE RESPONSIBLE.

Who Provided the Grand Jury With so Much Information.

"It is my private opinion," said a business man who would not allow his name to be used, "that the Good Citizenship league is responsible for the large batch of saloonists returned by the grand jury for breaking the liquor laws. I know they say the organization has died out, but if you remember it was organized as a secret society, and I have not the least doubt that it has been very active the past few months. I know it was the intention of the league to keep an eye on the liquor dealers, and if they broke the law to prosecute them."

ROLLED IN TIN.

Frightful Cuts Inflicted in a Horse's Neck.

A horse belonging to Joseph Smith, of the Calcutta road, became frightened at some tin that had blown from the roof of a house near where he was tied, and breaking loose from the post attempted to run away. The poor animal, however, became mixed up with the tin, and was thrown to the ground. There it rolled around for a time, endeavoring to gain a footing, but constantly slipping on the tin, was badly cut. A deep gash in the throat was the only dangerous wound, although the horse was covered with cuts.

SHORE ACRES.

The Greatest Play of the Season—Elks' Benefit.

"Shore Acres" is as delicate and simple as a morning glory. Its characters are so clear and commanding, so delightfully quaint and ingenious. Its sentiments are so poetic, its moral so sweet that he who can resist or miss its influence is either superstitious or mentally gross.—The Playgoer in New York Town Topics, Wednesday night, November 22, 1895

THAT'S QUEER!

You say a collar and cuff that are waterproof?

Yes.

And perspiration will not affect them?

Yes.

And when dirty you need only wipe them off with a wet cloth or sponge?

Yes.

Wonderful! How are they made?

A linen collar covered on both sides with waterproof "CELLULOID." Looks exactly like a linen collar.

Is it the only waterproof collar and cuff made?

No, but it is the only one made with the linen interlining and consequently the only one that can give entire satisfaction, because it is the best.

How can I know that I get the right kind?

Because every piece is stamped as follows:

TRADE MARK.

Inquire for that and refuse anything else, or you will be disappointed.

Suppose my dealer does not have them?

He probably has, but if not, send direct to us, enclosing amount. Collars 25c., Cuffs 50c. State size, and whether collar wanted is stand-up or turned-down.
